Pitch deck & presentation	1. The student demonstrates the ability to generate, interpret, and apply relevant insights to identify and assess potential business directions.
	trends		Pass' if students Identify and explore multiple relevant trends that connect to their business idea, showing curiosity and initiative.	Fail' if students Ignore or superficially mention trends without connecting them to their business idea or showing relevance.
	(desk) reseach		Conduct basic but relevant research to support their business idea (e.g. market, target group), showing effort to understand the context.	Skip research or rely on vague, unsupported assumptions without demonstrating effort to understand the market or target group.
	2. The student demonstrates the ability to design and critically evaluate business model scenarios, using evidence and KPIs to validate them.
	creative problem interpretation		Pass' if students demonstrate the ability to Translate the challenge into a clear and promising starting point, showing creativity or openness to alternative approaches.	Fail to define the challenge clearly or stick to obvious, uncreative interpretations without exploring alternatives.
	identifying assumptions		Identify key assumptions that influence the success of their business (e.g. KPIs), showing awareness of what needs to work.	Miss or ignore critical assumptions, or fail to recognize what factors are essential for their business to succeed.
	evaluating assumptions		Test assumptions and adapt based on feedback or results, showing willingness to learn and improve. At least two building blocks of Lean canvas Week 2 should be significantly changed in comparison to earlier versions.	Do not test assumptions or fail to adapt, sticking to initial ideas regardless of feedback or evidence.
	3. The student demonstrates the ability to assess the developed business case in terms of viability, desirability, feasibility, and social responsibility.
	Solution Interviews		Pass' if students demonstrate the ability to Conduct basic interviews or feedback sessions to explore product-market fit, showing engagement with potential users.	Skip interviews or collect irrelevant feedback, failing to engage meaningfully with potential users.
	Viability		show improved viability check for the business (e.g. adjusted cashflow statement or alike; depending on the success definition of the business) in order to develop an informed view on the viability of the business. At least two building blocks of Lean canvas Week 2 should be significantly changed in comparison to earlier versions.	Avoid or poorly execute viability checks, showing no effort to understand financial or operational feasibility.
	4. The student demonstrates a professional and reflective approach to entrepreneurial practice and personal skill development.
	Implemening knowledge		Pass' if students demonstrate the ability to Show how basic concepts from research, finance, ethics, or marketing have influenced their business idea.	Fail to apply or connect learned concepts to their business idea, showing no integration of knowledge.
