DELIVERABLES

1. Vision Board

2. Course and network event choices

3. Individual Portfolio &
Presentation Drive

5 leading questions

1. Who did you think you were as an entrepreneur, before you began?

Your vision board as evidence of your own assumptions. What kind of entrepreneur did you picture yourself as and which of those assumptions has the practice of the past few months overturned, or confirmed?

2. When did you notice that "entrepreneurship" asked something different of you than you expected?

Entrepreneurship often confronts you with things you can't plan for: rejection, uncertainty, a customer who doesn't respond, an idea that turns out not to work. What was your first real confrontation with that side of entrepreneurship, and what did it do to your self-image?

3. When did you have to make a hard choice or risky decision, and what did you do when it got to this point?

Entrepreneurship demands that you make choices without any guarantee of success. Which goal or step did you choose that felt risky and did you back away from it, adjust it, or push through? What does that choice say about you as an entrepreneur?

4. What was your best moment of success in this period, and what did you do in that moment that made it work?

Which moment truly felt like success and what did you do, think, or embody in that moment that made it work out just then? What does that tell you about what works for you?

5. Which entrepreneur are you now, that you weren't before this journey?

Specifically: who have you become in how you deal with risk, uncertainty, and setbacks? And how do you celebrate and define your successes? What characterizes you now as an entrepreneur?

DELIVERABLE 1

1. Vision Board

- Starting point for your plan of approach
- Visualize your 3 goals
- Bring to the group meeting (week of 14 September)

STRENGTHS

Charismatic Leader

Your natural charm and vision inspire others to follow your lead.

Visionary Planner

Your ability to see the big picture helps you create innovative strategies.

Empathetic Communicator

You excel at understanding and addressing the needs of colleagues and clients. You have a knack for finding solutions that benefit everyone involved.

WEAKNESSES

Self-Sacrificing

Your tendency to put others first can lead to burnout and resentment. Your eagerness to help can result in taking on more than you can handle.

Overly Idealistic

Your high standards might clash with practical limitations in the workplace.

Criticism-Sensitive

Negative feedback may affect your confidence and productivity more than you'd like.

GOALS

Expanding Your Network and Building Relationships

- Goal: Develop a strong business network to support and grow your company.
- How:
 - Attend networking events, both online and in-person, to meet potential customers, investors, or partners.
 - Connect with entrepreneurs in your field and build relationships through platforms like LinkedIn.
 - Gain confidence to talk about my business to people I don't know
- Measurable: You expand your network by building at least 10 valuable business contacts by the end of the semester.
- When: Attend 4 networking events this semester

Building an Online Presence and Digital Marketing

- Goal: Effectively use digital platforms to build your brand and reach customers.
- How:
 - Learn to use digital marketing tools such as Google Ads, social media marketing, and SEO.
 - Develop a content strategy for your website and social media, and maintain it consistently.
 - Analyze the results of your campaigns using tools like Google Analytics and adjust your strategy accordingly.
- Measurable: By the end of the semester, you see an increase in traffic to your website and social media, and your marketing campaigns generate new leads.
- When: Measure your progress at the start and 15 weeks later.

Improving Presentations and Oral Communication

- Goal: You want to speak more confidently and persuasively during presentations and group discussions.
- How:
 - Practice presentations regularly, possibly in front of a small group of friends or family.
 - Participate in class discussions and set a goal to ask at least one question per lesson.
 - Record your presentations to analyze and improve your performance.
- Measurable: You feel more confident and receive positive feedback from your teacher and classmates after presentations.
- When: Schedule 3 practice presentations this semester and ask for feedback.

TIMELINE

Goals

October:

- Look for suitable networking events and sign up
- Start building your LinkedIn profile and add at least 5 people
 - Plan your first practice presentation
- Begin learning digital marketing tools such as Google Ads, SEO, and social media marketing through online courses.

November:

- Attend your first networking event and exchange contact information with at least 2 people.
- Deliver your first practice presentation and ask for feedback.
- Apply the knowledge gained from Google Ads and SEO to improve your marketing strategies.

December:

- Attend your second networking event and connect with at least 2 more people.
- Continue participating on improving your communication skills.

January:

- Complete your online course and reflect on the learning outcomes.
- Apply the knowledge you've gained directly to your business.
- Analyze your marketing results and online presence, and make adjustments where necessary.

- Reflects on all tasks, including a summary of personal insights and a solid evaluation on how knowledge and insights are gathered from
 - completing the additional courses
 - attending the network events
 - the vision board and personal goals.
- Reflects on all tasks, including a summary of personal insights and a solid evaluation on how this links to the business case of the student

GOALS

All students state ambitions with regards to the minor, teamwork, and a minimum of three goals and a realistic indication on the realisation thereof (how, what, who, when etc).

SMART GOALS

Having clarity in your goal-setting provides the motivation and focus you need to be successful

- Specific (simple, sensible, significant).
- Measurable (meaningful, motivating).
- Achievable (agreed, attainable).
- Relevant (reasonable, realistic and resourced, results-based).
- Time bound (time-based, time limited, time/cost limited, timely, time-sensitive).

- 1. Specific

- What do I want to accomplish?
- Why is this goal important?
- Who is involved?
- Where is it located?
- Which resources or limits are involved?

- 2. Measurable

- How much?
- How many?
- How will I know when it is accomplished?

3. Achievable

- How can I accomplish this goal?
- How realistic is the goal, based on other constraints, such as financial factors?

- 4. Relevant

Does this seem worthwhile?

- Is this the right time?
- Does this match our other efforts/needs?
- Am I the right person to reach this goal?
- Is it applicable in the current socio-economic environment?

- 5. Time

When?

- What can I do six months from now?
- What can I do six weeks from now?
- What can I do today?

REFLECTION

- Reflection and self-awareness are important elements in self-development.
- Without reflecting, you won't know how far you have progressed, how much further you need to go, or what changes may need to be made to reach goals and grow.
- The STARR method helps you create an overview of the situation and actions which makes it easier to identify what elements worked and under which circumstances or factors, and which need more attention, to be removed, etc
- Helps you to better understand your behaviour

STARR

- STARR is a method of answering competency-based questions.

“describe a time when...” or

“share an example of a situation where...”.

STARR

S: What was the situation?

T: What was your task?

A: What actions did you take, what did you do?

R: What was the result, what happened?

R: What did you learn? (reflection/learning)

1. SITUATION

Describe the context situation where you were involved in. Whether it came from work experience, a volunteer position, or any other relevant event, you should be as specific as you can.

Where was it?

Who was involved?

When was it?

What was the goal?

What was the duration of the action?

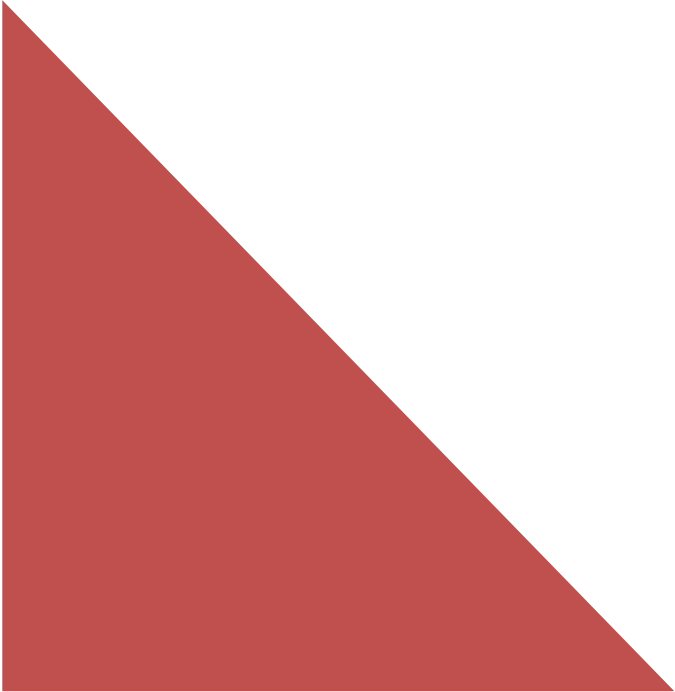

TASK

Start by describing the TASK that you were asked to complete/that you set for yourself. This situation can be from a previous job, from a personal experience or goal or from any relevant event. Give enough detail to understand what was involved.

Why you did the action?

What made you do the action that you will describe later?

What made you take on that role?

3. ACTION

Describe the action you took, the process you followed and the steps you completed. Even if you are discussing a group project or task, describe what you did rather than the achievements of the team.

4. RESULT

This is the most important part of the answer and you will need to show that your actions resulted in an outcome. Talk about what you accomplished, what you delivered in terms of benefit and what you learned.

5. REFLECTION

The final section of your answer should reflect on experience.

Through your experience, what have you learnt about the my dream?

What would you now do differently in the future and how can you continue?

* Why has your experience made you want to do my dream?

How will the skills
you've gained make you a better my dream?

EXAMPLE

SITUATION – FOR MY MY DREAM COMPANY, MY TEAM WORKER WANTED TO GET MORE PEOPLE TO SIGN UP TO A NEWSLETTER WHICH WAS NOT RECEIVING A LOT OF ATTENTION.

TASK - MY JOB WAS TO FIND A WAY OF GETTING MORE PEOPLE TO SIGN UP.

ACTION - I FOLLOWED A MARKETING WORKSHOP TO COME UP WITH CREATIVE IDEAS, AND I LED THE SOCIAL MEDIA CAMPAIGN TO GENERATE INTEREST IN THE NEWSLETTER.

RESULT - OVER A PERIOD OF 3 MONTHS, THERE WAS AN 25% INCREASE IN SIGN-UPS TO THE NEWSLETTER AND THE APPROACH I TOOK WAS USED BY THE MANAGEMENT TEAM IN OTHER DEPARTMENTS.

REFLECTION – BY GAINING THESE NEW MARKETING SKILLS I LEARNED SO MUCH MORE ABOUT THE TARGET GROUP, AND HOW I CAN GAIN THEIR INTEREST. IT LEARNED THAT I LIKE MARKETING MORE THAN I THOUGHT AND THAT I CAN TAKE THE LEAD IF NECESSARY.
